What is your life's purpose?

You may answer this question differently throughout your life. This is because, as your consciousness expands to higher and higher frequencies, you become more aware of the true depth of the question's meaning. This can be true right up to the end of your life. It is important to focus your attention. Focus produces a directed field of intention that magnetically attracts everything that is in resonance with your intended purpose.

Wisdom

Recognize that all experiences serve a greater purpose than can sometimes be understood at the moment. Life is the great teacher. To achieve self-mastery, it is important to grasp, as fully as possible, the lessons each experience is offering to teach you.

Desire

Desire is powerful, and when wisely directed in resonance with your Higher-Self, it can become a steadfast ally. Achievement of your life's purpose is accelerated when you have a dedicated and focused desire to transmute those conditions within your personality that stand in your way.

Acting Agent

When you use the power of your aligned personal will with the will of your Higher-Self, you naturally attract the necessary attitudes, skills, changes, and choices that are necessary to your success. Choices arise in your everyday life that require you to keep your personal will aligned with your life's purpose or you may scatter your energies in many directions.

Action

When purpose, desire, and acting are properly aligned, a result is always produced. You must then act upon the ideas and impressions that come to you. Begin living your life as-if.

Dynamic Point of Potential

The importance of establishing a conscious alignment with your Inner or Higher-Self cannot be overstated. This alignment creates a Dynamic Point of Potential, which is a focused point of receptivity that attracts higher frequencies of consciousness resulting in an influx of knowledge, creativity, wisdom, and purpose that infuses all of your actions, reactions, emotions, and thinking.

Develop Awareness of Yourself as Soul

As you consciously develop your awareness as Soul, you begin to gain greater knowledge and grow in wisdom for use of that knowledge. You begin to acknowledge your connectedness and oneness to everyone and everything. New and creative ways of thinking, acting, seeing, feeling, and doing arise. At its most profound expression, your conscious acknowledgment of yourself as Soul, assists you in attaining self-mastery, and aids in the evolution of humanity's consciousness, resulting in a tipping point that will transform the world making it a better place for everyone.

Life is a journey; direct your destination with purpose, love, and wisdom.

Part of the quest to finding your life's purpose is evolving your conscious experience of self and the world in which you live. In a spiritual sense, this is the reason why you are here. Once a glimmer of that purpose is sensed, your task is to implement your purpose.
